Quick Quotes

Q. All right, we have Yuri Yoshida here after round two of the CPKC Women's Open. Yuri, two really strong rounds out here. What you do you feel like it takes to be successful at this course?

YURI YOSHIDA: Actually, I was a little bit nervous before started this tournament because I couldn't make the cut six tournament in a row. It's my first time in my career.

So I'm happy to play on this weekend.

Q. Yeah, going off that, how do you feel like your confidence -- where is the state of it at right now? As you mentioned you maybe struggled, but how are you feeling this week in terms of confidence?

YURI YOSHIDA: I love this course because like similar to Japanese course: Narrow, beautiful green, but just a little bit, I mean, big undulation on the green, so not easy reading the line.

But I could hit well today.

Q. Yeah. And then as you mentioned, you're tied for the lead right now. Playing into the weekend how do you hope to keep that momentum going?

YURI YOSHIDA: Probably everybody get more birdies afternoon group, but I did my best today, yeah.

Q. Last question: How do you feel like the course was today conditions compared to yesterday?

YURI YOSHIDA: In this morning no wind, so we just lucky. Back nine was just a little bit hard for us, but I got par last hole.

I was really happy to say last hole, because difficult bunker shot, difficult putting. Yeah, that was perfect.
